Splashdown marks retirement for ex-area NASA engineer

By BARBARA BLANCHARD

Sentinel Staff Writer

A native of Fairmont Township who spent 12 years in the space program hitched his retirement to the moon.

Naval Commander Howard C. Wagar, retired, 63, visiting area friends and relatives this week, said he prepared his resignation to Federal Electric Corp., in May. He presented it when the moon trip schedule was complete and he could date it for the day after splashdown.

Once in the space program, "I always said I was going to work until we put a man on the moon," he commented.

Wagar credits the success of the moon landing to Presidents Kennedy and Johnson.

"President Kennedy said we would endeavor to put a man on the moon in this decade and return him safely," Wagar says, "and President Johnson obtained the money."

Wagar, who grew up on a farm along

Sager Lake, graduated from Granada High School in 1924 and went to New York City to attend RCA's radio-telegraph school. He obtained a first-class radio operator's license in 1928.

Following five years as a wireless operator on U.S. Merchant Marine ships, he was a radio engineer in broadcasting stations in New York, Cleveland, Marshalltown, Iowa, Long Beach, Calif., and at the San Francisco Fair.

He was radio engineer at a Warner Brothers station in Hollywood when World War II started.

Having served in Minnesota National Guard and then in the Navy Reserve while on merchant ships, he became a World War II naval officer.

Under National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), he worked for General Dynamics Astronautics, General Electric and Federal Electric at Cape Kennedy, Kennedy Space Center and on the Eastern Test Range which extends southeast of Florida to Ascension Island and Africa.

"I had my camera and was a little over three miles away to witness the launch of Apollo 11," he says.

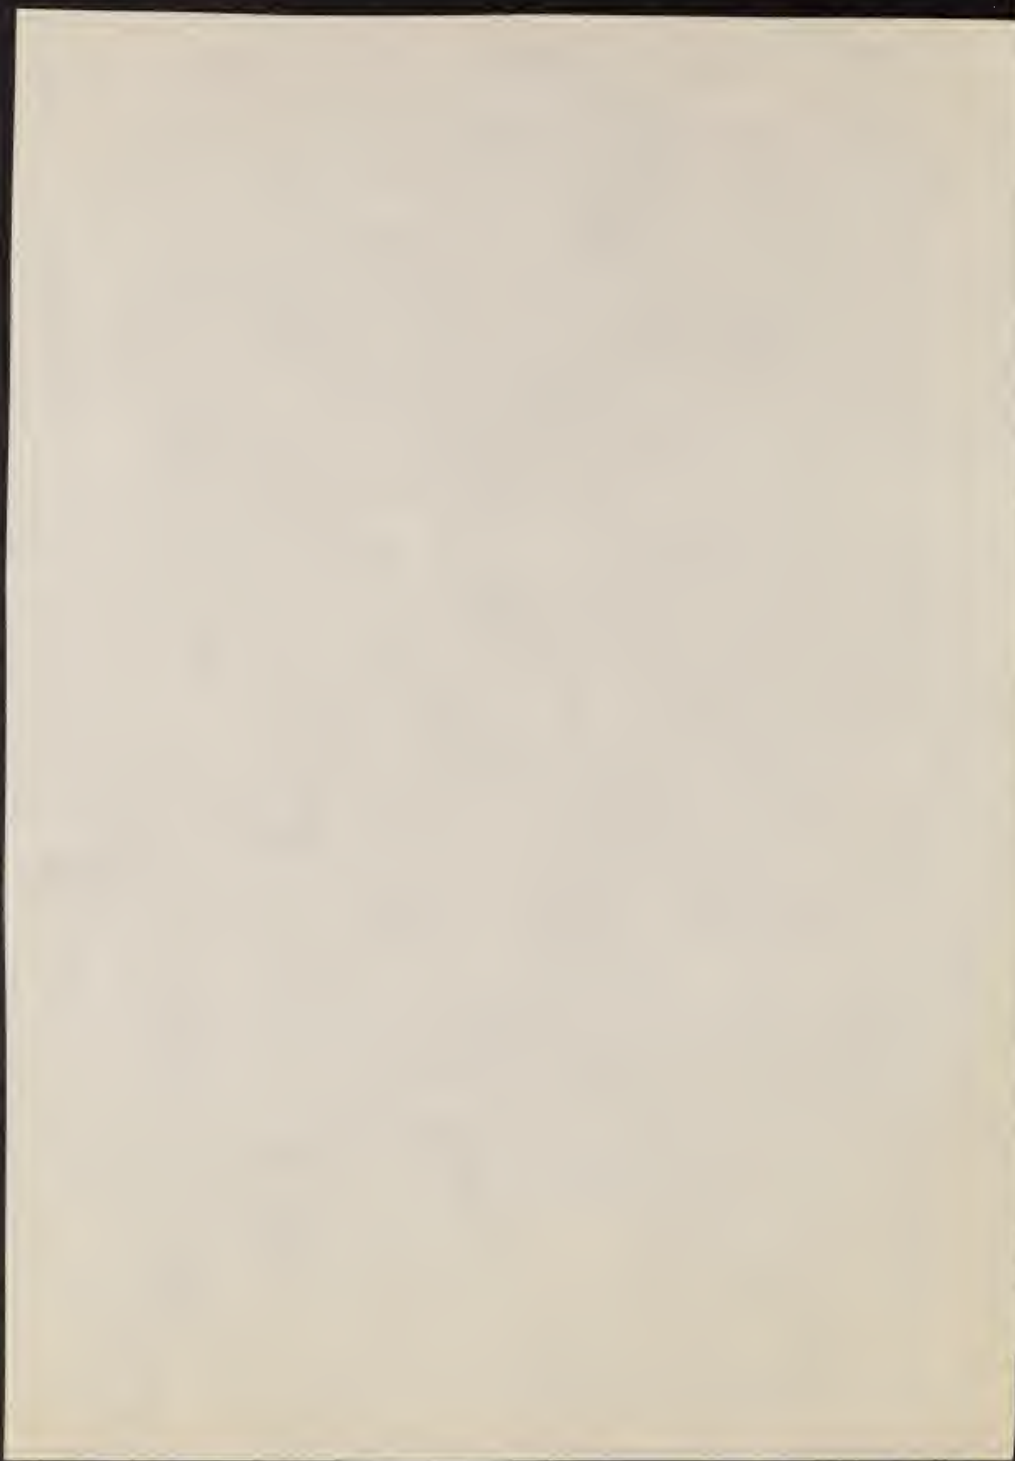

As a television and communications engineer, he helped lay out the television system in the space craft building.

Now he carries an engraved aluminum disc which contains metal the Apollo 8 astronauts took around the moon as a memento of his affiliation with the program — the high point in his career.

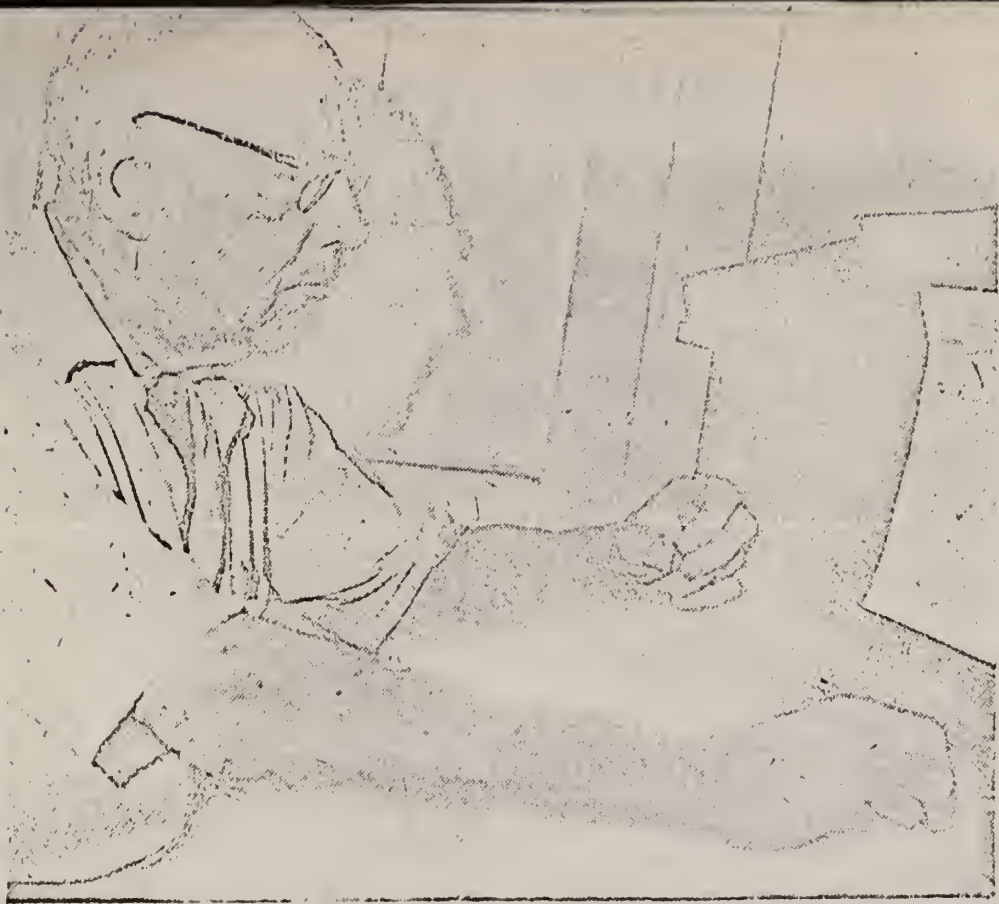

Wagar doesn't intend to vegetate. He has started tracing family history and found interesting data in New York State and Germany.

While he rents a home on NASA property in Florida, he thinks he may settle in Duclless County, N.Y. along the Hudson River, and make another trip to Germany to continue his genealogical search.

"I've dug up enough material to write a book," he says with a laugh.

RILES WAGER STILL SETS HIS TYPE BY HAND
... he picks it laboriously from worn, ancient racks

Old 'Florida Star' Opened Titusville Eyes to the World

By CAROLE BARDELLA
TODAY Staff Writer

"Florida East Coast railroad puts down tracks in Titusville."
"Fire destroys most of downtown buildings."

"The Wager Family purchases Ford roadster."
"Cadillac goes through Titusville 30 MPH."

"Mrs. Pritchard visits New York."

These are some of the headlines from the four-page weekly Florida Star — Brevard County's first newspaper which started in Titusville before the turn of the century.

Riles Wager, 70, who operates a print shop in the building on Washington Avenue where the paper was printed, said these were the "big" stories. Routine news centered around social events, babies born and the town's baseball team.

National and world news came on lead plates from Atlanta every week. It was "usually ... There were no wire services.

The printer's father, Ellis B.

Wager, brought the paper "lock, stock and barrel" July 30, 1887, from a man in New Smyrna Beach. The cost: $600.

Wager still uses in his shop the original foot operated job press, the type and type equipment. He sets everything by hand.

"This press is older than I am," he said. "It works like a sewing machine. Just push the peddle up and down with your foot."

The elder Wager carried the newspaper equipment from New Smyrna to Titusville on a sailboat on the inland waterway. "about 21" and had no news-

Ellis Wager at that time was paper experience. He was a piano tuner.

"He set the whole thing up in his home in Titusville," Wager said, "and taught himself how to run it." He was editor, publisher, reporter, type setter, pressman and delivery boy.

He later moved the paper into the building where Wager's print shop is located. In 1918, Ellis sold it.

Wager described his father as "the typical old-time newspaper man." He wore a green eye shade, rubber apron and smoked a pipe. He died in 1929.

"People would send news from all over the county," Wager said. "The paper was read way down Vero Beach and Fort Pierce. It was the only one around. It was sent south by sailboat on the Indian River or by horse and buggy over dirt roads.

"It would take almost a week to set the type by hand for the paper," he said. "Then we'd have to dump it out and start again for the next week."

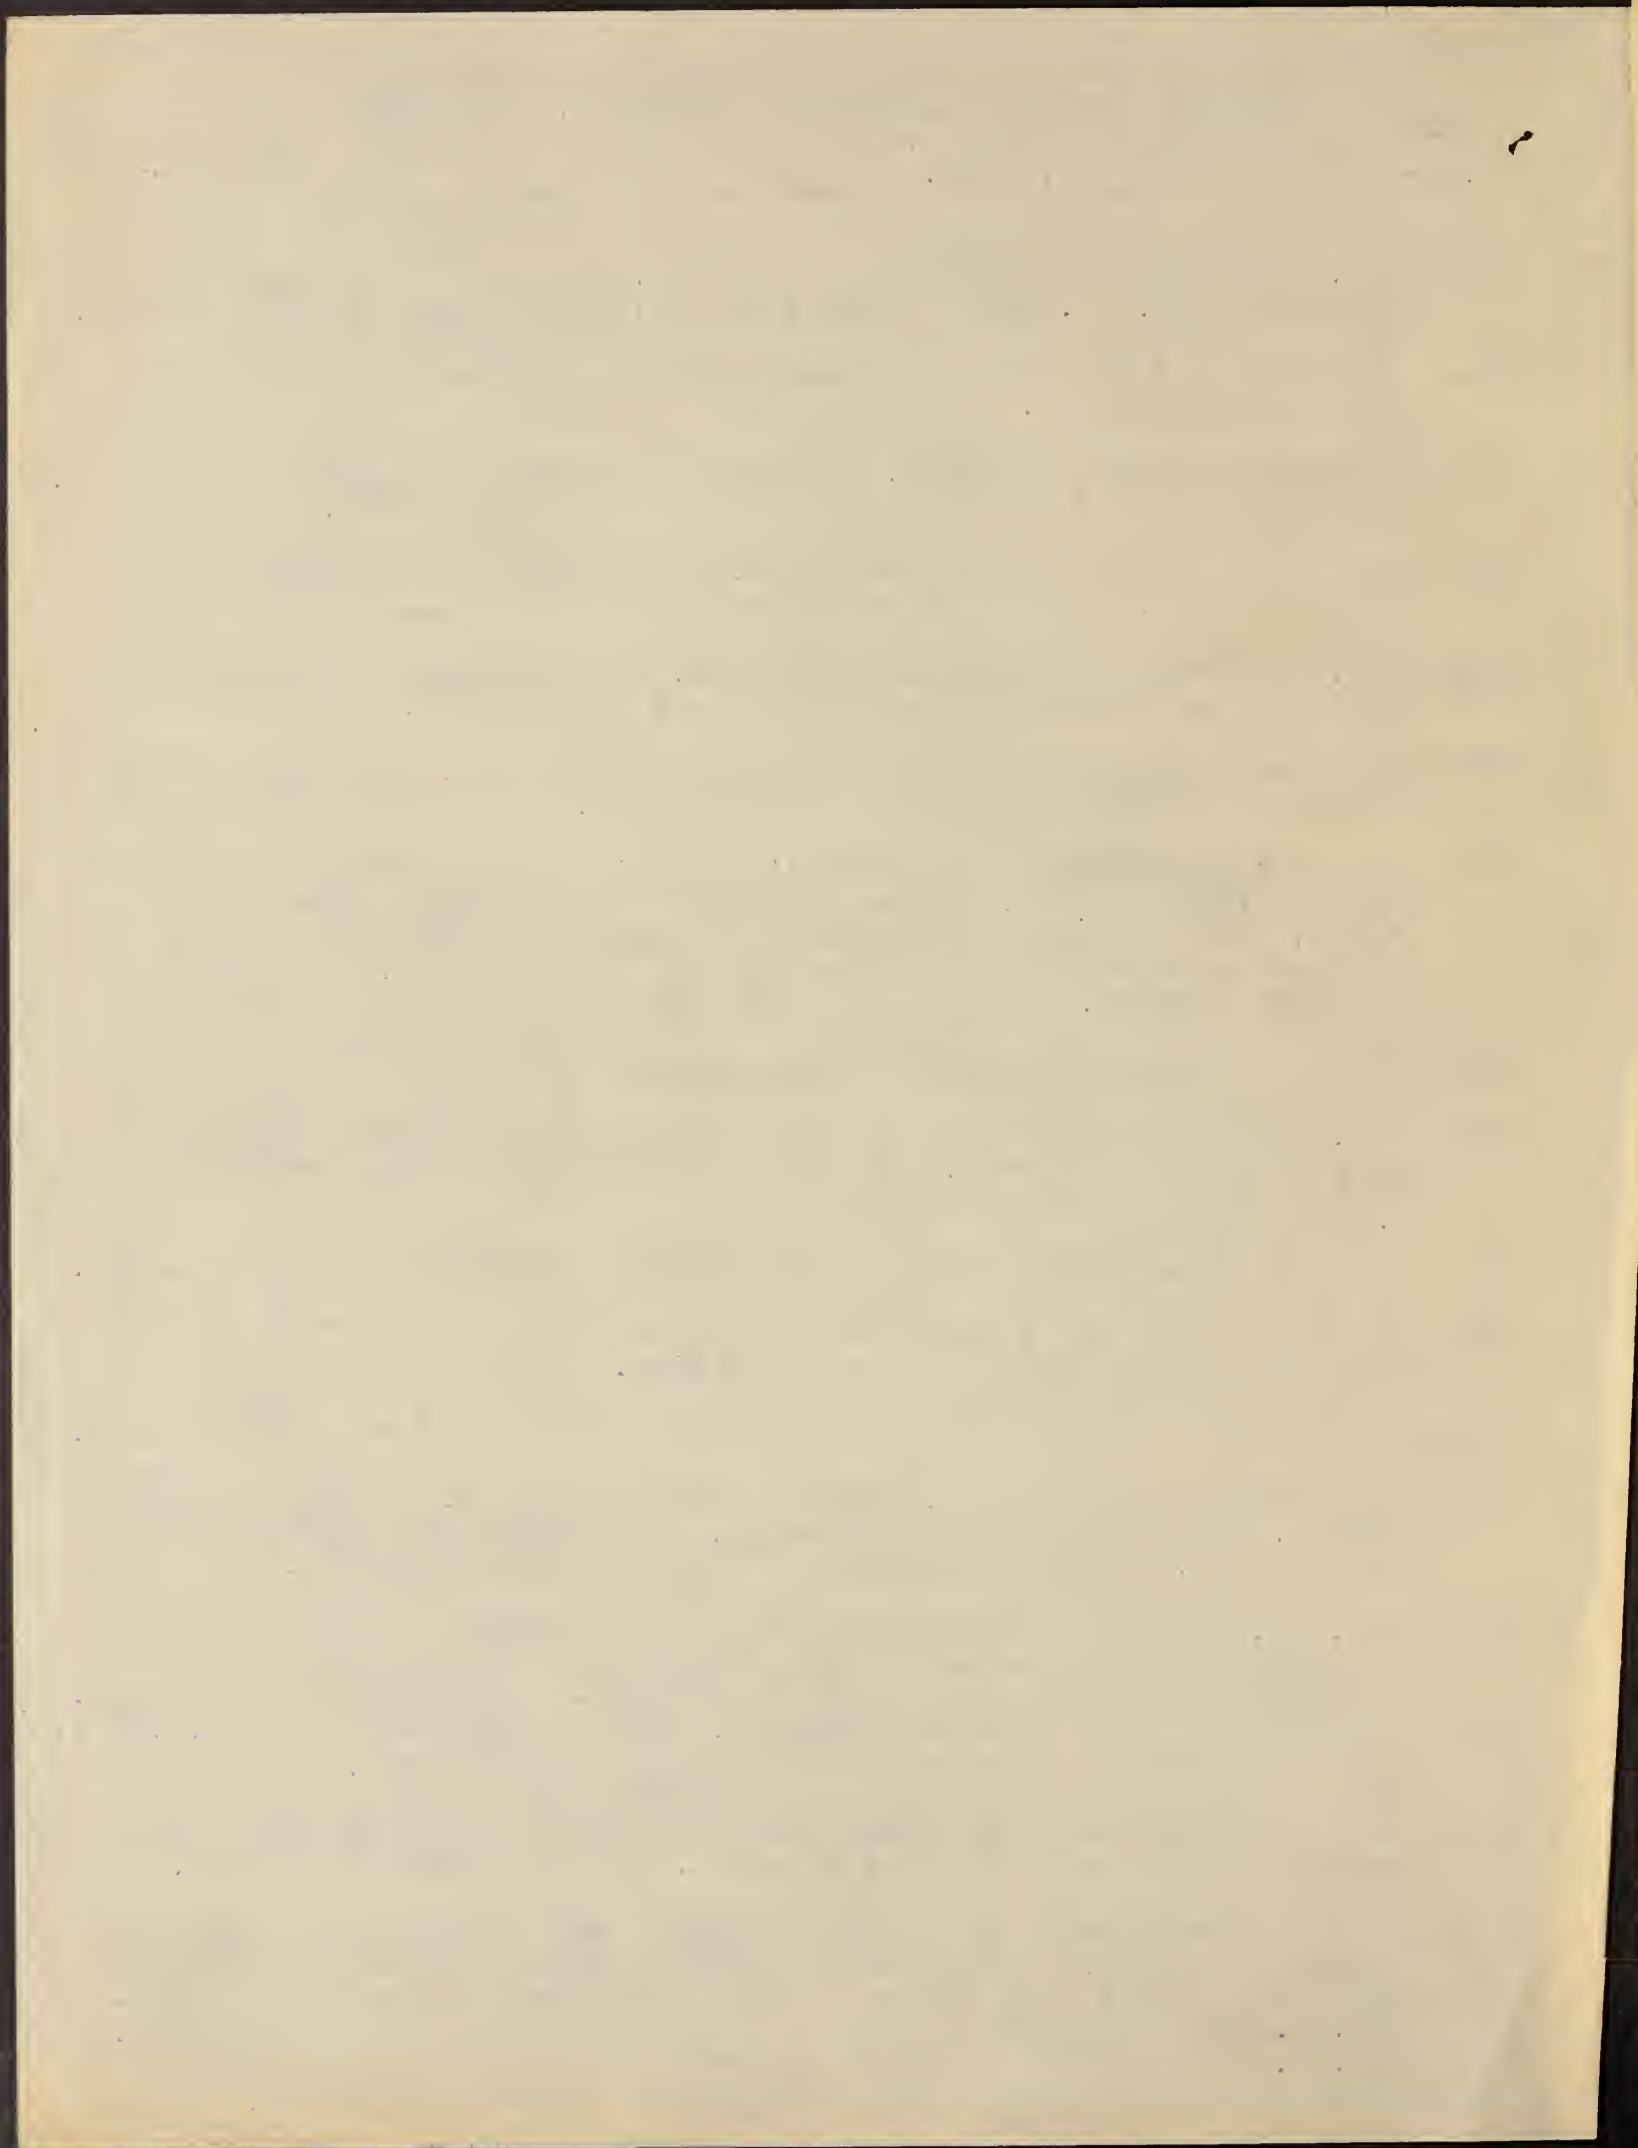

In the early 1900's, competition arrived on the scene in the form of another weekly: The Florida East Coast Advocate.

There was a lot of good humored jesting between the papers," Wager said. "They were both trying to get the advertising." To be different, the Advocate was put out on "Pink paper."

Dr. H.C. Burleigh
Bath, Ontario

Dear Friend:

I suppose you are wondering what has happened to the Bundles 15 and 80. Last fall I obtained permission to take my typewriter over to accomplish the copying of the records. But at that time I was so occupied driving to Poughkeepsie to copy the Tax Records that I never found time to spend a Saturday in the New York Library. I think you will agree that the time spent in the Poughkeepsie Library was well worth the many Saturdays and the drive. Then of course the Holidays prevented me from continuing the work. I have been having some eye strain due to the tedious hours spent on the tax records. However have patience and some of these days the information you desired from 15 and 80 will be arriving at Bath.

Last week was my first opportunity to visit Albany since last fall. This was therefore the only chance I had to copy the Edgcumbe data. Have also enclosed an item about James Freeman that may be of interest to you.

In the Wagar genealogy I have been making constant progress on both sides of the Atlantic. We now have the dates and list of most emigrants in the two periods of 1738 and 1750. Also nearly have the two Eberhards separated. I have reason to believe that the other Eberhard's eldest son Jacob settled in the Johnstown-Williamsburg along the St Lawrence across from Ogdensburg, N.Y. This Jacob was quite prominent in the Parliament of early Canada. There is also the possibility that this other Eberhard as old man (born in Germany 1727 and son of a Barent Weger remaining in Germany) moved to Canada to live with his eldest son. This might account for our family tradition that our Eberhard was the son of a Barent. I have gathered a great deal of circumstantial evidence that our Eberhard was the son of Hans Jury Weger who was an emigrant with his brother Leonard in 1738. The other Eberhard apparently a tailor (Barent was a tailor) was an emigrant in 1750 and married a Shever. Our Eberhard who claimed a weaving loom (Loyalist Claim) was apparently born in Germany in 1732 the son of Hans Jury Weger a weaver. Our Eberhard married a Magdalena Carver (Kerver and occasional indications it may have been known at times as Corban, Corben, Corbin) The Jacob who settled in the Johnstown area apparently retained the spelling of Weegar and any known Weegars of today are probably descendants of the other Eberhard. Believe that there is a good possibility records in the Johnston-Williamsburg area might completely untangle the two Eberhards. Barent and Hans Jury were brothers also.

Yours sincerely

Dear Friend:

Enclosed in this letter is a copy of correspondence to Thompson Wagar of Enterprise. He is the "Tommy" that spent the Sunday with us last August. I do think that the cemetery commonly known as the "Wagar Cemetery" along the Napanee Bay may have information of value to both of us. The statement in the letter to "Tommy" that you two might get together for the search was merely a suggestion as I realize that your schedule might prevent such an arrangement. The berry bushes were so thick in August of this year and last year that it was most difficult to do much searching. I believe this is the time of the year to make a more thorough search.

I am being transferred by the Navy to the vicinity of Chicago and will make several stops up state New York in connection with the Wagar Genealogy. Anson Wagar of the Labour Department is meeting me in Albany and will continue on to his brother Fenton's farm at Penn Yan south of Rochester. Anson believes that we are now in a position to commence serious work on the publication of a "Wagar Genealogy". For this reason, it is requested that you do not publish in any form the data from the "Leonhard Weager of Poppenweiler" Chart that I gave you last August. I have sufficient copies of that chart to place them in all Libraries and Archives but after careful consideration we have decided that it is not the time to place them. Although I firmly believe all information therein is accurate, additional data is being uncovered here in New York as well as Wuertemberg which will undoubtedly result in a revision of this first tentative chart. We of course realize that any venture into the selling of a publication of the "Wagar Genealogy" could not possibly be successful from the financial angle, but are naturally anxious to defray at least part of the cost through sale of the books to libraries interested as well as relatives in Ontario and the United States. Anson Wagar is employed in Ottawa but graduated from Yale in 1903 and may retire in the next year. He is an excellent writer, having published a small booklet on the Wagars in the 1930s. If he retires I have hopes he may devote full time to the writing of the Wagar Genealogy. I have sufficient material now to commence the work.

I have an excellent photo of the "N.E. 1740" on the chimney of the Nicholas Emigh house. Will obtain a print for you. Will also keep you informed of my Illinois address.

Sincerely
Howard C. Wagar

Dear Tommy:

Now that the frost is on the pumpkins and I hope the berry bushes, it should be a good time to visit the cemetery down near the Napanee River or Bay. There may be tombstones there that we missed a year ago. It could be that Thomas I and Thomas II are buried there. There is also the possibility that Eberhard was buried there as it is not so far from Lot 15. Some of the people presently living there called it the "Wagar Cemetery".

I thought perhaps you might like to have photostats of the original record of Eberhard's Burial, William and Eberhard's marriage and of Thomas II baptism. These photostats are included in this letter. I was very fortunate to be able to obtain them in Kingston the day I left Enterprise.

The Navy is transferring me to a new duty station in the vicinity of Chicago. I am leaving on Saturday and will stop off at Albany on the way to Illinois. It will be nice to be near home (about 500 miles) so that I can drive home occasionally. Of course one never knows whether the new Duty Station is desirable until after reporting in. I will keep you informed of the new mailing address.

I am writing to Doctor Burleigh and have included a carbon copy of this letter to him. I doubt if he has copied the records from the tombstones in that cemetery mentioned in this letter. Perhaps the two of you might want to visit it on the same day. I would like very much to have a complete record of all stones as it might help to solve some of the remaining points in the "Wagar Family Tree".

Best regards to all at Enterprise

Howard

Dear Friend:

Enclosed herewith are typed copies of Bundles 15 and 80. I took the typewriter this morning and boarded the subway and so at long last I have lived up to my promise of last August. The copies were made direct from the Manuscripts and I did not have time to check them thoroughly so there may be some errors. However I trust they are accurate enough for what you want.

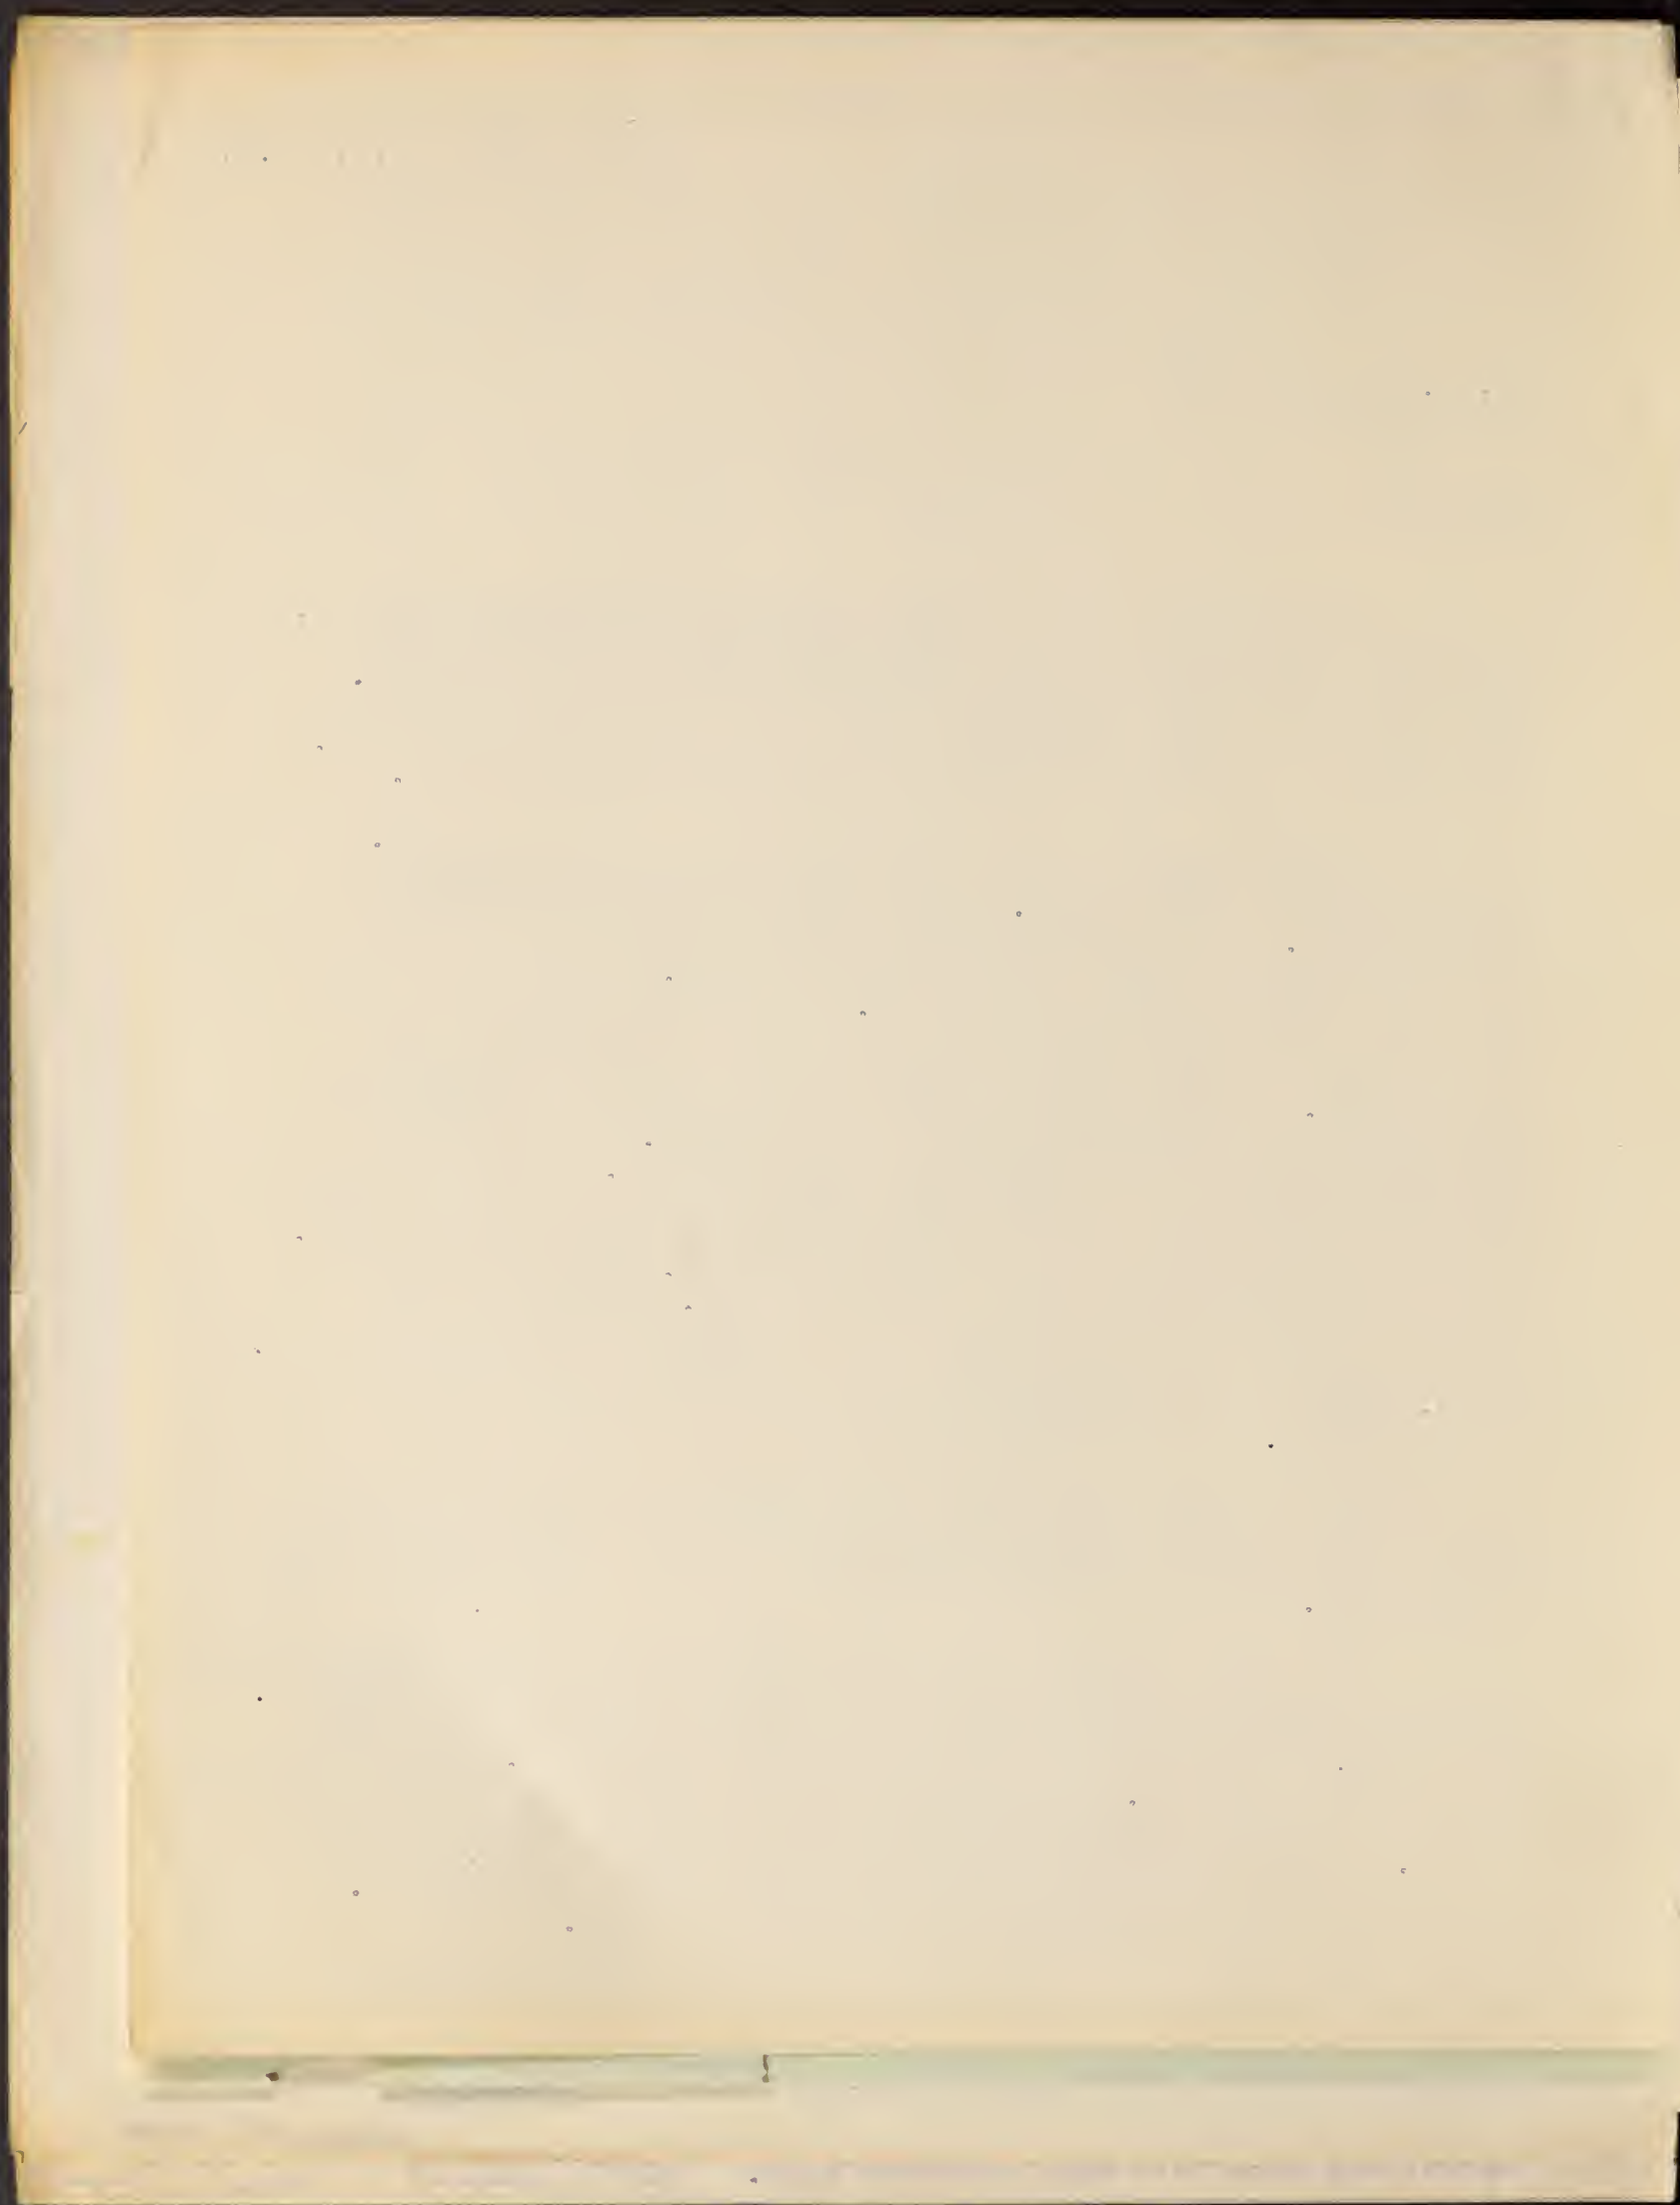

I plan to take some military leave in about a month. It now appears that I would drive north along Lake Champlain about 23rd and 24th of May. Hope to arrive in Ottawa on the 25th or 26th. Will remain as long that week as necessary to cover all the Wagars in the Loyalist records. I know that you are very familiar with those files. Any information you could forward to me within the next week or two regarding the name and type of records that I should search, would be greatly appreciated. I believe that I now have the Eberhards separated and hope to document it by the trip to Ottawa. The Jacob is definitely the eldest son of the OTHER Eberhard. This Jacob was quite prominent as a sergeant and later a Captain, settled at Williamsburg and his grave is at Morrisburg in Dundas County. An Everard Weger applied for land at Matilda. Would this be the old Matilda Station or Matilda Township? This may be a younger Eberhard, son of one of the two older Eberhards and then again it could be the OTHER and older Eberhard father of Jacob. Intend to cross the St Lawrence so that I can look up Jacob's grave.

The return trip will be made sometime between 29th of May and first week in June and will be via Enterprise and Napanee and of course I am looking forward to at least a short visit with you at Bath.

I spent a few hours in the State Library at Hartford, Conn. and of course kept one eye open for Burleighs, Roses and Freemans. Obtained a little information but doubt if it is anything that you have not already copied from printed genealogies. Will bring it along on the trip. You made sketch of Ottawa and indicated a hotel in the vicinity of the Archives but I am unable to make it out. Appears like Chateau Launea, but I am not sure. Would like to obtain the name so that I may write for reservations. If my plans should change I will drop you a line.

Yours sincerely

Dear Friend:

In about one month I plan to be in Ottawa. I plan to start leave about 19th or 20th of August, probably starting research in the Archives about the 24th. Will return via Enterprise-Napanee-Bath the latter part of that week or the next week on the 30th or 31st. At any rate I wanted to advise you of my plans so that you did not visit Dutchess County while I was looking at tombstones in the Bay of Quinty.

Since last May I have been to Dutchess County and talked to Mr. Smith the County Clerk and he said that if the tax records were examined it could be done by micro film. The inference was that the original Record Books had been moved to the vault at South Millbrook. However I was in the Dutchess County Court House several weeks ago to procure a photostat of a Road Record of 1742 which was in one of the Tax Books. Mr. Smith was not in but the photostat man took me into special room of the Court House and I saw all of the tax records and obtained a photostat of the original. They are apparently engaged in the micro film work and have not as yet placed those particular books in the vault at South Millbrook. Mrs. Amy Ver Nooy has the micro film rolls of the tax records at the Adriance Memorial Library in Poughkeepsie. I do not know if the Library has a machine for use of the films.

Great progress has been made on the Weger-waeger-Wagar genealogy and I feel confident that we will eventually publish it. We have an enthusiastic supporter in Mr. Anson Wagar of the Labour Department of Ottawa. We are about to start the research at St. Peters of Tyrol(Tirol) which should carry us back to at least 1600 and perhaps 1550. I feel that I have exploded the Barent father of Eberhard theory once and for all. Eberhard was the son of Hans Jury (John George) and grandson of Leonard of Poppenweiler, Wuerttemberg, Germany. Found a few skeletons in the closet over in Germany. Hans Jury had three wives, 1st divorced, 2nd died as a result of his abusive treatment and we are descendants of the third Margaretha who he brought to America in 1738.

Looking forward to seeing you in a month.

Dear Friend:

For the past week I have been in the Naval Infirmary at Naval Air Station, Glenview, Illinois with a broken rib, as a result of a minor car accident. Nothing serious, only the Navy Doctor wants to prevent further complications such as a cold, etc. Therefore I have been unable to do my Christmas shopping. The Doctor believes that I will be able to take the train for Menasha and be home on Christmas Day. Did you visit the Cemetery near Nipawase before the snow fell?
I have made some further progress both in Germany and New York. I do not have a permanent address here at Glenview so please send all future correspondence to the address listed below.

Sincerely

Address: c/o C.C. Wagon

To His Excellency, the Governor in Council —

The Petition of Evened Weegar — late of Dutchess County, Province of New York —

Humbly Sheweth,

That your Petitioner is desirous of availing himself of the Bounty which His Majesty has been graciously pleased to offer — to Loyalists who wish to emigrate from the United States, to this Province, and of becoming an Inhabitant of the District of Lunenburg — for proof of his Loyalty, and good character, he begs to refer himself to the testimony of Jacob Weegar and John Shaver, he has other vouchers to offer if wanted. Wherefore your Petitioner prays that he may be admitted as a Settler in this District — And your Petitioner as in duty bound shall ever Pray —

Evened Weegar)

Conclusions of Howard C. Wagar

The Christina Magdalena De Lange listed as born April 8, 1718, child of Jan de Lange and wife Anna Magdalena is the same person listed below in the Marriage Records of the Dutch Reformed Church of Fishkill, New York.

Date	Name ^c	Birthplace
31 May	Thomas Geerber	Staten Island
1736	Leena de Lange	Poquajock (Poughquag, N.Y.)

The Magdalena Kerve born in 1740 is the child of Thomas Carver (Kerve-Geerber-Kerwel-Kerver) & Christina Magdalena (Lena) De Lange. Magdalena Carver (Kerve) born in 1740 married Hans Eberhard Weger in the late 1750's or early 1760s. Children born to Hans Eberhard and Magdalena Weger included Thomas born 25 August 1762 and William born 2 December 1771. Howard C. Wagar is a descendant of both Thomas and William.

Joh. Niclass Wager born 10 August 1743 and Anna Maria Wager born 19 May 1745 are brother and sister of Hans Eberhard Weger christened in Poppenweiler, Wurttemberg, Germany 22 March 1732. All three are the children of Hans Jury (John George) Weger and wife Margaretha. Johann George Weger, former citizen of Poppenweiler, renunciations were drawn to Sternenfels in 1737 and may have been an emigrant that year. However it is considered more likely he accompanied his brother Leonhard in 1738 and probably arrived on one of the following ships:

Copied from the New York Gasette. From October 9, to Monday October 16, 1738:

New York Oct. 18. Last Thursday Capt. Willston arrived here in ten weeks from Plymouth, he took 300 Palatines on board at Amsterdam, but above 100 of them died in the Passage. On Friday Capt. Ratfey arrived with 170 Palatines on board in good health.

Arrivals: Ship Amsterdam - Jof. Willston from Plymouth.
Ship Anne - Chrise Ratfey from Cowes.

This entry coincides with the entry in Church Record Book on the bottom of page 2.

A thorough check of all of the weekly editions of The New York Gasette for the Summer and Fall of 1738 indicated only the Ships Amsterdam and Anne entered the Port of New York from Holland. It was the only mention of German Palatines throughout the entire period.

1738 Oct. 15 A poor German girl Maria Magdalena Ruge 17 years old.

1738 In the month of October a German, and a woman, and a child. In the month of November a woman again.

1740 Sept. 30 In the month of September a German girl, about 10 or 11 years old.

List of Members

1738 Jan. Sunday after Trinity received while administering Holy Communion to some Germans, Eva Ruge, 14 or 15 years old.

Constitutions of Howard C. Weger

The Christian Magdalen De Lange listed as born April 2, 1715, child of Jan de Lange and wife Anna Magdalena is the same person listed below in the Marriage Records of the Dutch Reformed Church of Middelburg, New York.

Date	Name	Birthplace
31 May 1736	Thomas Greider Leona de Lange	Staten Island Rensselaer (Rensselaer, N.Y.)

The Magdalena Kerve born in 1740 is the child of Thomas Greider (Kerve-Greider-Greider) & Christiana Magdalena (Leona) De Lange. Magdalena Greider born in 1740 married Hans Richard Weger in the late 1750's or early 1760's. Christian born to Hans Eberhard and Magdalena Weger included those born 25 August 1740 and William born 2 December 1741. Howard C. Weger is a descendant of both Thomas and William.

John William Weger born 10 August 1743 and Anna Maria Weger born 19 May 1745 are brother and sister of Hans Richard Weger christened in Rensselaer, N.Y. Weger, Germany. 22 March 1752. All three are the children of Hans (John Greider) Weger and wife Margareta. John Greider Weger, former citizen of Rensselaer, N.Y. Weger is in dream to Germanists in 1757 and may have been an emigrant that year. However it is considered more likely he accompanied his brother Leonard in 1747 and probably arrived on one of the following ships:

Copied from the New York Gazette. From October 9, to October 10, 1738:

New York Oct. 15. Last Thursday Capt. William arrived here in two weeks from Plymouth. He took 200 passengers on board at Rotterdam, but above 100 of them died in the passage. On Friday 3 p.m. Patten arrived with 170 passengers on board in good health.

Arrivals: Ship Amsterdam - Jol. Willem from Plymouth.
Ship Anna - Christa from Coves.

This entry coincides with the entry in Christa's Record Book on the bottom of page 2.

A thorough check of all of the weekly editions of The New York Gazette for the summer and fall of 1738 indicated only one ship Amsterdam and Anna arrived the first of New York from Holland. It was the only mention of German passengers throughout the entire period.

According to Papers relating to the Palatines Page 590 Vol. III of Documentary History of New York by E. B. O Callaghan: Minister Justus Fallenier. He is deceased Anno. 1723.

Pieter Lassens was located at New Hamburg, Dutchess County, N.Y. on the Hudson River about midway between Beacon and Poughkeepsie.

Verified by H.C. Wagar Niclaas Emigs is presumed to be the stone house described as follows: "One is the stone house on the farm of W. V. Coe at North Clove in the town of Union Vale, which is said to have been built in 1740 by Nicholas Emigh." Volume 15 edition of the Dutchess County Historical Society Year Book for 1930 contains a photograph of this stone house. The location is probably about due east of Poughkeepsie and about six miles from the Connecticut line. It is to be noted that Magdalena Carver Weger was baptised at Niclaas Emigs in the "Klove" at Backway the very year that the stone house was built.

The Year Book of the Dutchess County Historical Society Volume 9, 1924 on Pages 48, 49 and 50 has an article, "A Forgotten Church". The article commences on page 48 as follows, "There was once a Lutheran Church in the town of Beekman. It is not mentioned in any of the Histories of Dutchess County and the fact that it formerly existed was discovered recently by chance". Continuing on Page 49, "In the 1730's and 1740's the Rev. Michael Christian Knoll was pastor of a Lutheran Church in New York City and served also small groups of Lutherans at "Hakkinsack" and at Quassick Creek (Newburgh), at Weapons Kreek (Wappingers Falls?), and at "Bachwayk" (Poughquag) Dutchess County. In the 1740's trouble was caused at Poughquag by a certain John (or George) Lodwick Hoefgoed".

The following was copied from, "Eighteenth Century Records Dutchess County New York". Collected by William Willis Reese and edited by Helen Wilkinson Reynolds.

PLACE-NAMES on page 313

1722 to 1797 Poughquag. This name occurs in a variety of spelling in Deeds, Mortgages, and Roads.

Editor's Note: The word: Poughquaick appears on a map of the Beekman Patent Dutchess County, which was made in 1703, where it is applied to an area near the west line of the patent. The map is reproduced in the Year Book of Dutchess County Historical Society, Volume 3, frontspiece. The same word appears on a map of the Town of Beekman, dated 1798, where it is applied to a pond and to an area east of the pond. The pond is now called Sylvan Lake and the area east of it is equivalent to the area which is marked "Poughquaick" on the map of 1703. The map of 1798 is reproduced in the Year Book of the Dutchess County Historical Society, volume 9, 1924 opposite page 50. In later years application of the word narrowed to a hamlet in the Town of Beekman and the spelling settled into Poughquag. The word is derived from two Indian terms, uppuqi (lodge-covering) and auke (land) and indicates a place where the cattail reed grew abundantly. The reeds were plaited by the Indians into mats or lodge-covering.

Amy Ver Noy of the Adriance Memorial Library, Poughkeepsie, N.Y. believes that Poughquag and Backway is the same place. The Backway or Bachway may refer to the entire Clove Valley including Poughquag, Beekman, Clove, and North Clove. A map of Dutchess County indicates that North Clove and Poughquag are about five miles apart. Within the next few months this entire area will be further explored by the writer. It is hoped that other landmarks and additional manuscripts material may be discovered at that time.

Peter Linsen was located at New Hamburg, Dutchess County, N.Y. on the Hudson River about fifty between Beacon and Poughkeepsie.

Michael Hags is presumed to be the stone house described as follows: "One is the stone house on the farm of W. V. Goe at North Grove in the town of Union Vale, which is said to have been built in 1740 by Nicholas Wright." Volume 12 edition of the Dutch County Historical Society Year Book for 1900 contains a photograph of this stone house. The location is probably about due west of Poughkeepsie and about six miles from the Connecticut line. It is to be noted that Michael Hags was a listed at Michael Hags in the "Kluge" at Poughkeepsie the very year that the stone house was built.

The Year Book of the Dutchess County Historical Society Volume 9, 1904 on page 48, 49 and 50 has an article, "A Forgotten Church". The article continues on page 48 as follows: "There was once a Lutheran Church in the town of Beekmantown. It is now non-existent in any of the histories of Dutchess County and the fact that it formerly existed was discovered recently by chance." Continuing on page 49, "In the 1730's

York City and served also small groups of Lutherans at 'Herkimer' and at 'Quaker'
Greek (Newburgh), at Poughkeepsie (Poughkeepsie Falls?), and at 'Barnaby' (Poughkeepsie)
Dutchess County. In the 1740's Poughkeepsie was called at Poughkeepsie by a certain town

PUGHKEEPSIE

1722 to 1727 Poughkeepsie. This name occurs in a variety of spelling in Dutchess, Montgomerie, and Dutchess.
Editor's Note: The name Poughkeepsie appears on a map of the Dutchess Patent Dutchess County, which was made in 1703, where it is spelled as an answer to the west line of the patent. The map is reproduced in the Year Book of Dutchess County Historical Society, Volume 3, frontispiece. The same word appears on a map of the town of Beckmantown, dated 1793, where it is spelled as a point and to an area east of the point. The point is now called Sylvan Lake and the area east of it is equivalent to the area which is marked "Poughkeepsie" on the map of 1703. The map of 1793 is reproduced in the Year Book of the Dutchess County Historical Society, Volume 3, 1793 opposite page 50. In later years application of the word narrowed to a hamlet in the town of Beekmantown and the spelling settled into Poughkeepsie. The word is derived from two Indian words, pough (lodge-covering) and keepsie (land) and indicates a place where the cotton will grow abundantly. The name was placed by the Indians into maps or lodge-covering.

Any Ver Ver of the American Memorial Library, Poughkeepsie, N.Y. believes that Poughkeepsie and Beekmantown is the same place. The Beekmantown or Beekmantown may refer to the entire Grove Valley including Poughkeepsie, Beekmantown, Dutchess, and North Grove. A map of Dutchess County indicates that North Grove and Poughkeepsie are about five miles apart.
Within the next few months this entire area will be further explored by the writer.
It is hoped that other landmarks and additional manuscript material may be discovered at that time.

OBITUARIES

NATHAN J. WAGAR

The death occurred suddenly at his summer cottage at Clear Lake, Arden, on Tuesday, July 17, of Nathan J. Wagar, of Oshawa. Mr. Wagar, who was on holidays, suffered a heart attack and died within an hour.

8-8-1952

Mr. Wagar was born at Tamworth, on April 3, 1883, and was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John A. Wagar. He was married to Edith E. Park on September 23, 1903, and had lived in Oshawa for the last 44 years. Three years ago he retired after having, for 16 years, been manager of the wood working department of the Oshawa Missionary College.

Mr. Wagar was a member and for many years local elder of the Seventh Day Adventist Church.

The deceased is survived by his wife and one son, Harold K. Wagar, of St. Petersburg, Florida. He was predeceased on June 15, 1955, by a brother, Wellington Wagar. There are three grandchildren.

The funeral service was in the Armstrong Funeral Chapel on Friday, July 20, and was conducted by Elder V. W. Collins, assisted by Elder C. G. Maracle, of the Seventh Day Adventist Church. Interment was in the Mount Lawn Cemetery.

H. C. Wager Letter,
19 Oct., 1952

Although in Albany for a short time I made a great "find" for the Wagers of Canada. I have listed it below:

Athens, N.Y., Zion's Evangelical Lutheran Church.

1762 Baptism Friday nearest to 22nd day after Trinity.
Born Thomas 25 Aug. Parents Eberhard and Lena Weger.
Sponsors Thomas Kerver and Lena in the place (home) of John Shever and Elizabeth.

Now this proves that Eberhard Weger did marry a Magdalena Carver (Kerver) and that her brother or father's name was Thomas Kerver (Carver). So for the record Thomas was born 25 August 1762 and Willem was born 2 Dec. 1771. Parents Eberhard Wager and Magdalena Carver.

So I have only one major obstacle left. That is the parents, birth place and birth date of Eberhard. Archives at Ottawa insist that Eberhard was 36 in 1782. Obviously this must be an error, for if Eberhard was born in 1746 he would only have been 16 in 1762, when his eldest son Thomas was born. Ottawa states that his place of origin was U.S.A. Now I have record of an Eberhard born in Germany ~~about 1727~~ in 1727 and another Eberhard in 1732. Wagers left Germany about 1738 and appear in Dutchess County tax lists in 1739. No record of marriages or Baptisms in Dutchess County until 1746, five or six Wagers marrying in the 1760s, including Eberhard were probably born in Dutchess County in the period 1739 to 1745.

Schoharie (N.Y.) Lutheran Church

Baptisms.

Catharina, born Sept. 15, 1767, baptized Sept 20, 1767 daughter of Thomas Weger and Elisabeth. Sponsors Johannes Weger and Barbara Wiederwachs.

Dear Friend:

I suppose you have decided that I have forgotten all about Bundles 15 and 80. Since returning from Ontario I have been occupied with Navy correspondence that accumulated during my leave of absence, with ship inspections and also with some travel on Navy work.

However last Saturday I was finally able to visit the Manuscript Room of the New York Public Library. I located the listings of Bundles 15 and 80 a short time before closing time. During the summer months the library is not open on Saturday afternoon. The name John Piercy does appear in one of the bundles (I believe 80) with only the notation that he was from Pennsylvania. No listing of land, personal belongings, etc. The other bundle lists only a Jos. Piercy. Everhart Wager is also listed in one of the many bundles. It was not quite clear in my mind whether you wanted a list by name of all of the Claimants or if you only desired a list of the claims under John Piercy. It would not be difficult to give you a complete list of the names of all of the Claimants in Bundles 15 and 80. However under some of the Claimants a list is given of their property, etc. It would be quite a task to copy all of these listings under each name. I would be very happy to copy the list of Claimants and you could then advise me of any further information you might desire regarding the claims of certain individuals. I am also curious to learn if I might obtain the desired transcription of Everhardt Wager's claim by writing to the Public Record Office, Chancery Lane, London, England. No entry was made under Everhardt other than it was a new claim. Perhaps you could advise me on how to obtain this data from England.

The New York Public Library will resume the fall and winter schedule in October which will enable me to work all day on Saturday in the Manuscript Room. I hope to have the list of Claimants in Bundles 15 and 80 by 15 October.

While on the return trip to New York I stopped off at the Crowns Lands Department Building in Toronto and discovered an old map, presumably the original survey map of Fredericksburg Township made 1784-1789. I obtained a photostat of this map and also mailed one to Mr. Thompson Wagar in Enterprise, Ontario. I am sure that Thompson would be most happy to let you examine this rare map. Everhardt Wager is listed as having 100 acres W $\frac{1}{2}$ Concession 7 Lot 15. This location was also verified in the records of the Toronto Archives. This places Everhardt's farm on the edge of present Napanee and only a short distance from St. Warburgs Church where his name appears in the records of 1790s. Unfortunately I did not search the cemeteries or other possible clues in that vicinity. If you should be in the Napanee-St Warburgs area I would appreciate it if you would be on the lookout for data on the Wagers.

I hope that you have success in your research in the Ottawa Archives. I hope to visit Albany next Saturday-will keep lookout for data you requested.

Sincerely

Howard C. Wagar

WHEN RAIL

(St. Thomas Times-Journal)

The advent of the grouse shooting season in Scotland recalls to old-time railroaders the occasion when the two great rival systems in Britain fought an exciting and terrific campaign in order to gain the heavy bookings from the Society folks in London to Aberdeen in the North of Scotland for the shooting. One route was the East coast from St. Pancras, in London, via York, Newcastle and Edinburgh, and the other was the West coast route from Euston via Carlisle and Edinburgh.

The year was 1895, but the rivalry existed for many years before that, and in 1888 there was a race for the grouse traffic between the two systems. At that time the East coast trains took about nine hours for a journey of approximately 400 miles from London to Edinburgh, and the West coast trains took about half an hour more, the West route being longer. The rivals knocked minutes off the scheduled time turn by turn, over a period of two weeks, until in the middle of August, they quit by mutual consent, the East coast system finishing with a run of seven hours, 26 minutes and 45 seconds. That was 90 minutes faster than the timetable, and it is still 10 minutes faster than the regular time today. The West coast took exactly eight hours.

Having regard to the kind of motives 64 years ago, railroaders will probably concede that these were remarkable performances.

A. B. WAGER, 70, STRICKEN, DIES

SUFFERED CEREBRAL HEMORRHAGE ON TUESDAY

VETERAN WOODWORKER OF CITY

He Was Foreman For G. W. White & Son, Inc., Lumber Firm — Learned Woodworker's Trade in Mill of Roblin & Hotchkins.

Alpheus B. Wager, 70, foreman for G. W. White & Son, Inc., lumber firm, and for many years a woodworker here, died at 1:55 Saturday afternoon at his residence, 624 Franklin street, of a cerebral hemorrhage he suffered early Tuesday morning.

Mr. Wager remained unconscious from the time he suffered the stroke until his death. He had been in good health and worked the day before he was stricken ill.

He was born April 10, 1868, at Enterprise, Ont., a son of the late David C. and Sarah Brown Wager. With his parents, his brother, Stuart C. Wager, and his sister, now Mrs. Harry E. Latimer of South Butler, N. Y., he came to Watertown from Canada in 1888.

Mr. Wager learned the woodworker's trade in the mill of Roblin & Hotchkins, early lumber dealers here, and was employed in that mill for years. In 1907 he moved to Philadelphia, N. Y., where he was superintendent of the Groat Lumber company for six years.

From Philadelphia Mr. Wager went to Potsdam in 1913 and there served as construction superintendent for the L. B. Cleveland Construction company, supervising the construction of the new freight and passenger stations of the New York Central railroad in that village and of an overhead crossing on the outskirts of Potsdam.

Mr. Wager returned to Watertown from Potsdam in 1923 and for three years was foreman of the sash and door department of the W. A. Sullivan Lumber company. Since 1926 he had been a foreman at the G. W. White & Son mill.

Mr. Wager was a communicant of the Trinity Episcopal church. He was a past sachem of Kahuahgo Tribe, No. 185, Improved Order of Red Men. He had been a member of that organization for 46 years.

He married Miss Eleanor B. Outwater of this city on Oct. 25, 1893. The ceremony was performed in Trinity Episcopal church by Rev. J. S. Reed, then rector of the church.

Surviving him are his wife; two sons, Roy O. and Milton R. Wager, Syracuse; a daughter, Mrs. Arthur Clinton (E. Blanche) Standley, Ithaca; a brother, Stuart C. Wager, city; a sister, Mrs. Harry E. (Jennie A.) Latimer, South Butler; six grandchildren and several nephews and nieces.

The body was removed to the Northam & Fox Funeral home, where funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. Rev. Walter C. Middleton, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, will officiate. Burial will be made in North Watertown cemetery.

Death at Deseronto Of Mrs. John Wagar

Funeral of Mrs. Samuel Moore — Bowling and Softball 1938

DESERONTO, June 8—A resident of Deseronto for the past ten years and held in very high esteem by all who had the pleasure of knowing her, the death occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Putman, on Thursday night of Mrs. John Wagar at the fine old age of 80 years.

The funeral was held from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Putman, this Saturday morning which was in charge of Rev. A. D. Waite of the United Church, of which church the deceased had been a member since coming to Deseronto. After the service the body accompanied by relatives entrained for Roland, Man., and the interment will be made in the family plot, where Mr. Wager and two daughters are buried.

The deceased who had been ill for some months and who had been confined to her bed since Christmas, was before her marriage, Miss Waddington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waddington. She was born in Picton and her marriage was solemnized at Hungerford, Hasting county. After her marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Wager left for the Coe Hill district where they remained for some years. In 1899 they left for Roland, Man., and twenty-one years later Mr. Wager passed away at Roland. Five years later Mrs. Wager came east and with the exception of a visit to the west had spent the intervening years with her daughter Mrs. Putman.

Throughout her life time Mrs. Wager had been a very devout member of the Methodist (now United) Church and took a very active interest in her younger years in church work. She leaves to mourn her loss two sons, Jack Wager of Winnipeg, and Will Wager of Roland, Man., and one daughter, Mrs. Putman.

Rev. A. G. Cameron, D.D. attended the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church this week in Montreal.

Funeral of Mrs. S. Moore
Relatives and friends in large numbers attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Samuel Moore, a very highly esteemed resident of Deseronto for a long period of years which was held on Thursday afternoon.

The deceased for sixty years had been a devout member of the Brethren. There were several beautiful floral tributes. The pall-bearers were two son-in-laws, Mark Detlor and Charles Blake, and four grand-sons, Jack and Norman Moore of Port Hope, Maurice Detlor of Deseronto and A. Bruckman of Altona, Pa. Interment was made in the family plot, Deseronto cemetery.

MICHAEL WAGAR

SILLSVILLE — There passed away at his residence, Michael Wagar, an old and respected resident. He had been in failing health for some time. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. G. A. Puttenham. Interment was at Napanee.

Surviving him are one son, Roy, on the homestead, and one daughter, Mrs. Adam Howitson.

MISS MINNIE WAGAR

WAGARVILLE—Word was received here on Sunday of the sudden death of Miss Minnie Wagar of Webster, N.Y., on Saturday. As yet no details have been learned except that her death occurred in a serious motor accident. Deceased was born in Wagarville and spent most of her early days here. Her grandfather, Wesley Wagar, resides here, and much sympathy is extended to him in his trouble. Dec 21 1938

Mr. Wagar's only son, Roy, was killed overseas and his wife died several years ago. Miss Wagar was a girl of outstanding character and very much interested in all work of the church. Just two weeks ago the local Ladies Aid received a generous parcel from her to be sold at the Christmas bazaar.

ANNUAL MEETING IS TONIGHT

E. Way Clarke Has No Opposition —Rest of Slate Will Also Be Elected at Session—League Organized in 1892.

E. Way Clarke will be elected president of the Lincoln League at the annual meeting of the organization at its club rooms in the Charlebois building at 8 tonight.
He will succeed Charles A. Roberts.

A slate of officers was nominated Oct. 3 and opportunity given for other nominations. Last opportunity to make further nominations passed last Monday night without any being made. Hence election of the unopposed slate is practically guaranteed.

Others to be elected tonight are:
First vice president, W. L. Viau, succeeding Mr. Clarke; second vice president, H. W. Pennock, succeeding Mr. Viau; corresponding secretary, P. L. Barker, succeeding Special City Judge Harry
J. Goodwin; recording secretary, Russell L. Jackson, reelected; treasurer, Raymond B. Pappa, succeeding the late Harry E.
Ayers.

Mr. Roberts will be elected to the executive committee for one year to fill out the unexpired term of Mr. Pappa and the following members of the committee will be reelected for three-year terms:
O. A. Severance, Robert W. Flaws,
Clark K. Sherer, R. H. Ganter,
Frank W. Kellogg.

Powers' Interest

The first tangible evidence of the powers' interest in Japan's purpose was seen today when the British ambassador, Sir Robert Clive, visited the foreign office and conferred with Vice Minister Manoru Shigemitsu. The Rengo Agency said the ambassador asked for information regarding the North China situation and especially the Japanese army's intentions. The vice minister replied reassuringly, insisting Japan's position was reasonable.

HAMILTON, June 8—(CP) — Na-outlook is seen as Canada's prime president of Canadian Industries Limited.

At the closing session of the Cana-night, Mr. Purvis deplored what he termed a cleavage in the national viewpoint in Canada and appealed for a national government to restore it.

"We do not have to go far to seek the main reason why we, in Canada, have more recently failed to maintain our rate of progress, when earlier on so much more sound and consistent a showing towards recovery was achieved," Mr. Purvis said.

"It is because a cleavage in the national viewpoint has gradually been developing as against a relatively united front in the earlier stages of the depression." The cleavage, he said,

Kingston Man's Body Found In Wreckage

FO. Claud Wagar Killed
When Lancaster Crashed
June 24, 1953

The body of FO. Claud T. Wagar, Kingston, was among the nine recovered Tuesday by a RCAF ground party which hacked its way through the dense bush to get to the downed plane. The air force men were killed in a bomber crash last winter about 100 miles southeast of Goose Bay, Labrador, while searching for a United States civilian plane. They were flown to the RCAF base at Greenwood, N.S., the home base of the missing craft. Wreckage of the plane, a Lancaster, was found last week.

Those aboard the aircraft included three other Ontario men: FO Douglas D. Wood, Peterborough; FO Bernard D. Forbes, North Bay and Cpl. Rodger D. Lalond, Kirkland Lake.

FO CLAUD T. WAGAR

One of the largest funerals ever held in the Tweed district took place Monday of FO Claud T. Wagar, pilot of the RCAF bomber which crashed five months ago, 100 miles south east of Goose Bay, Labrador, losing its entire crew.

YARKER — A pretty wedding was solemnized at the United Church parsonage on Wednesday evening Dec. 21 at 8 o'clock, when Miss Dorothy Dafeo of Yarker, became the bride of Charles Wagar, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wagar of Enterprisé. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. S. Smart.

The bride looked lovely wearing a blue satin dress with matching accessories. The happy couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Leeman Wagar of Enterprise, the latter a sister of the bride.

After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served at the bride's home, after which Mr. and Mrs. Wagar motored to Kingston. They will reside on a farm near Enterprise. Besides the immediate relatives the guests included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lovelace.

Dr. H.C. Burleigh

Dear friend:

Since writing you last month my plans have changed and I now plan to leave for Minnesota in about a week to visit my parents. However I still hope to make the Ottawa trip, perhaps in August. In the meantime I am still finding additional material in New York State.

The Supervisor Records in the Adriaance Public Library at Poughkeepsie have been returned to the County Clerk and I was advised that they are now locked up in a safe but microfilms are being made for the public use.

I have always maintained a sharp lookout for Burleighs, Freemans and Roses in the baptism records of Dutchess County. They do not seem to appear in the church records that I searched that were largely Lutheran. However there is always the possibility that they attended some obscure church of denomination other than German or Dutch.

Be sure and keep me informed of your plans so that I do not make the trip to Canada at the time you are down in New York. Usually that is the way vacations develop. I believe that I will be able to vary the dates of the trip to Canada providing you give me sufficient notice before I apply for leave.

Many thanks for the information regarding the Archives and Hotels in Ottawa. Hope to see you both in Bath and in Dutchess County.

Sincerely,

Howard C. Wagon

Herr Egon Oertel
711 Oehringen, Kernstrasse 10
Wurttemberg, Germany

Dear Mr. Oertel:

I telephoned your son Goetz last night at Williamsburg, Virginia. He plans to make a trip to the University of Florida at Gainesville in December. We hope to meet at that time, for Goetz as a NASA engineer would be able to make a tour of NASA's Kennedy Space Center. I am presently assigned as a television engineer for the General Electric Company in NASA's Manned Spacecraft Operations Building at the Space Center.

Last March I moved from Melbourne Beach to a new location just south of Oak Hill, Florida and live on NASA property 27 miles north of the MSO Building. My new address is:

P.O. Box 157
Oak Hill, Florida

Goetz mentioned that he may make a trip to Europe next summer and he would be able to meet me at Poppenweiler to assist in locating the town records for the 1700 to 1750 period. If possible I will make the trip to Germany at that time, as I would like very much to obtain photo-copies of the pages listing the Wagar emigrants to America.

In your recent travels in Wurttemberg and Karnten have you discovered additional data on the Wagar genealogy? I would be interested in any recommendations you may have for continuing the research.

With best regards
Yours sincerely,

Howard C. Wagar

Dr. H.C. Burleith,
Bath, Ont.

Dear Sir:

I understand that you have some U.E.L. church, or other, records.

I wonder if you could give me some assistance. I am trying to look up some records on the Wagar (or Wager) family.

As I understand the family history, Hans Everhart (John Ephriam) and wife Magdalena Carver and two sons, William Everhart and Thomas came from New York State in 1784. I don't know where Hans Everhart or son Thomas settled. Apparently Magdalena died and Hans E. remarried, in 1792 Elizabeth Kellar. I have a reference to a date of marriage of Ebhart Weger to Elizabet Keller 19 August 1792, and a burial date of Elisabet, wife of Everhart Wager 6 February 1796, and Everhart Wager 10 March 1796.

Thomas married Debrah Embury and they had three or four daughters. I have record of:

Mary dau. of Thomas and Deborah Wager Baptized 20 Feb. 1788

Elizabeth dau. of Thomas and Deborah Wager baptized 11 Feb. 1989.

I have no death of Debra Embury, but a record that Thomas married Mary Parliament (1791- 1816) and this record:

Thomas son of Thomas and Mary Wager baptized 20 Jan 1792.

also a daughter Susannah born 14 May 1798, who married Philip a son of her uncle, William Everhart. Susan and Philip had 14 children, one of whom (Ephriam) was my great grandfather.

I would like more information on Thomas and his family of 16 or 17 children.

William Everhart was given Lot 3 ,concession 2, in S. Fredricksburg twp. near Adolphoustown in 1793. (I have been to see the homestead) He married, 8 Jan. 1794, Elizabeth McCabe and they had 14 children. I have the names of them as being:

Michael, Philip, William , Elias, Ephriam, Thomas, Carver, Jacob, Peter, James, Henry, Ann and Siley, and two boys who died in childhood.

I would appreciate very much any information available, such as birth, marriage, and death dates of William Everhart and his brother Thomas, and their children.

I am directly decended from William through Philip, Thomas Carver, and Siley, and from Thomas through Susannah.

Philip and Susan had a son Ephriam who married his cousin Siley, a daughter of Thomas Carver. William Everhart's daughter Siley married Elias Jackson, whose son Alvin married another daughter of Thomas C. named Irene. Alvin and Irene were my mother's parents.

Ephriam and Siley had a son Levi. His son John Wagar married Siley Jackson dau. of Alvin and Irene, and they are my parents.

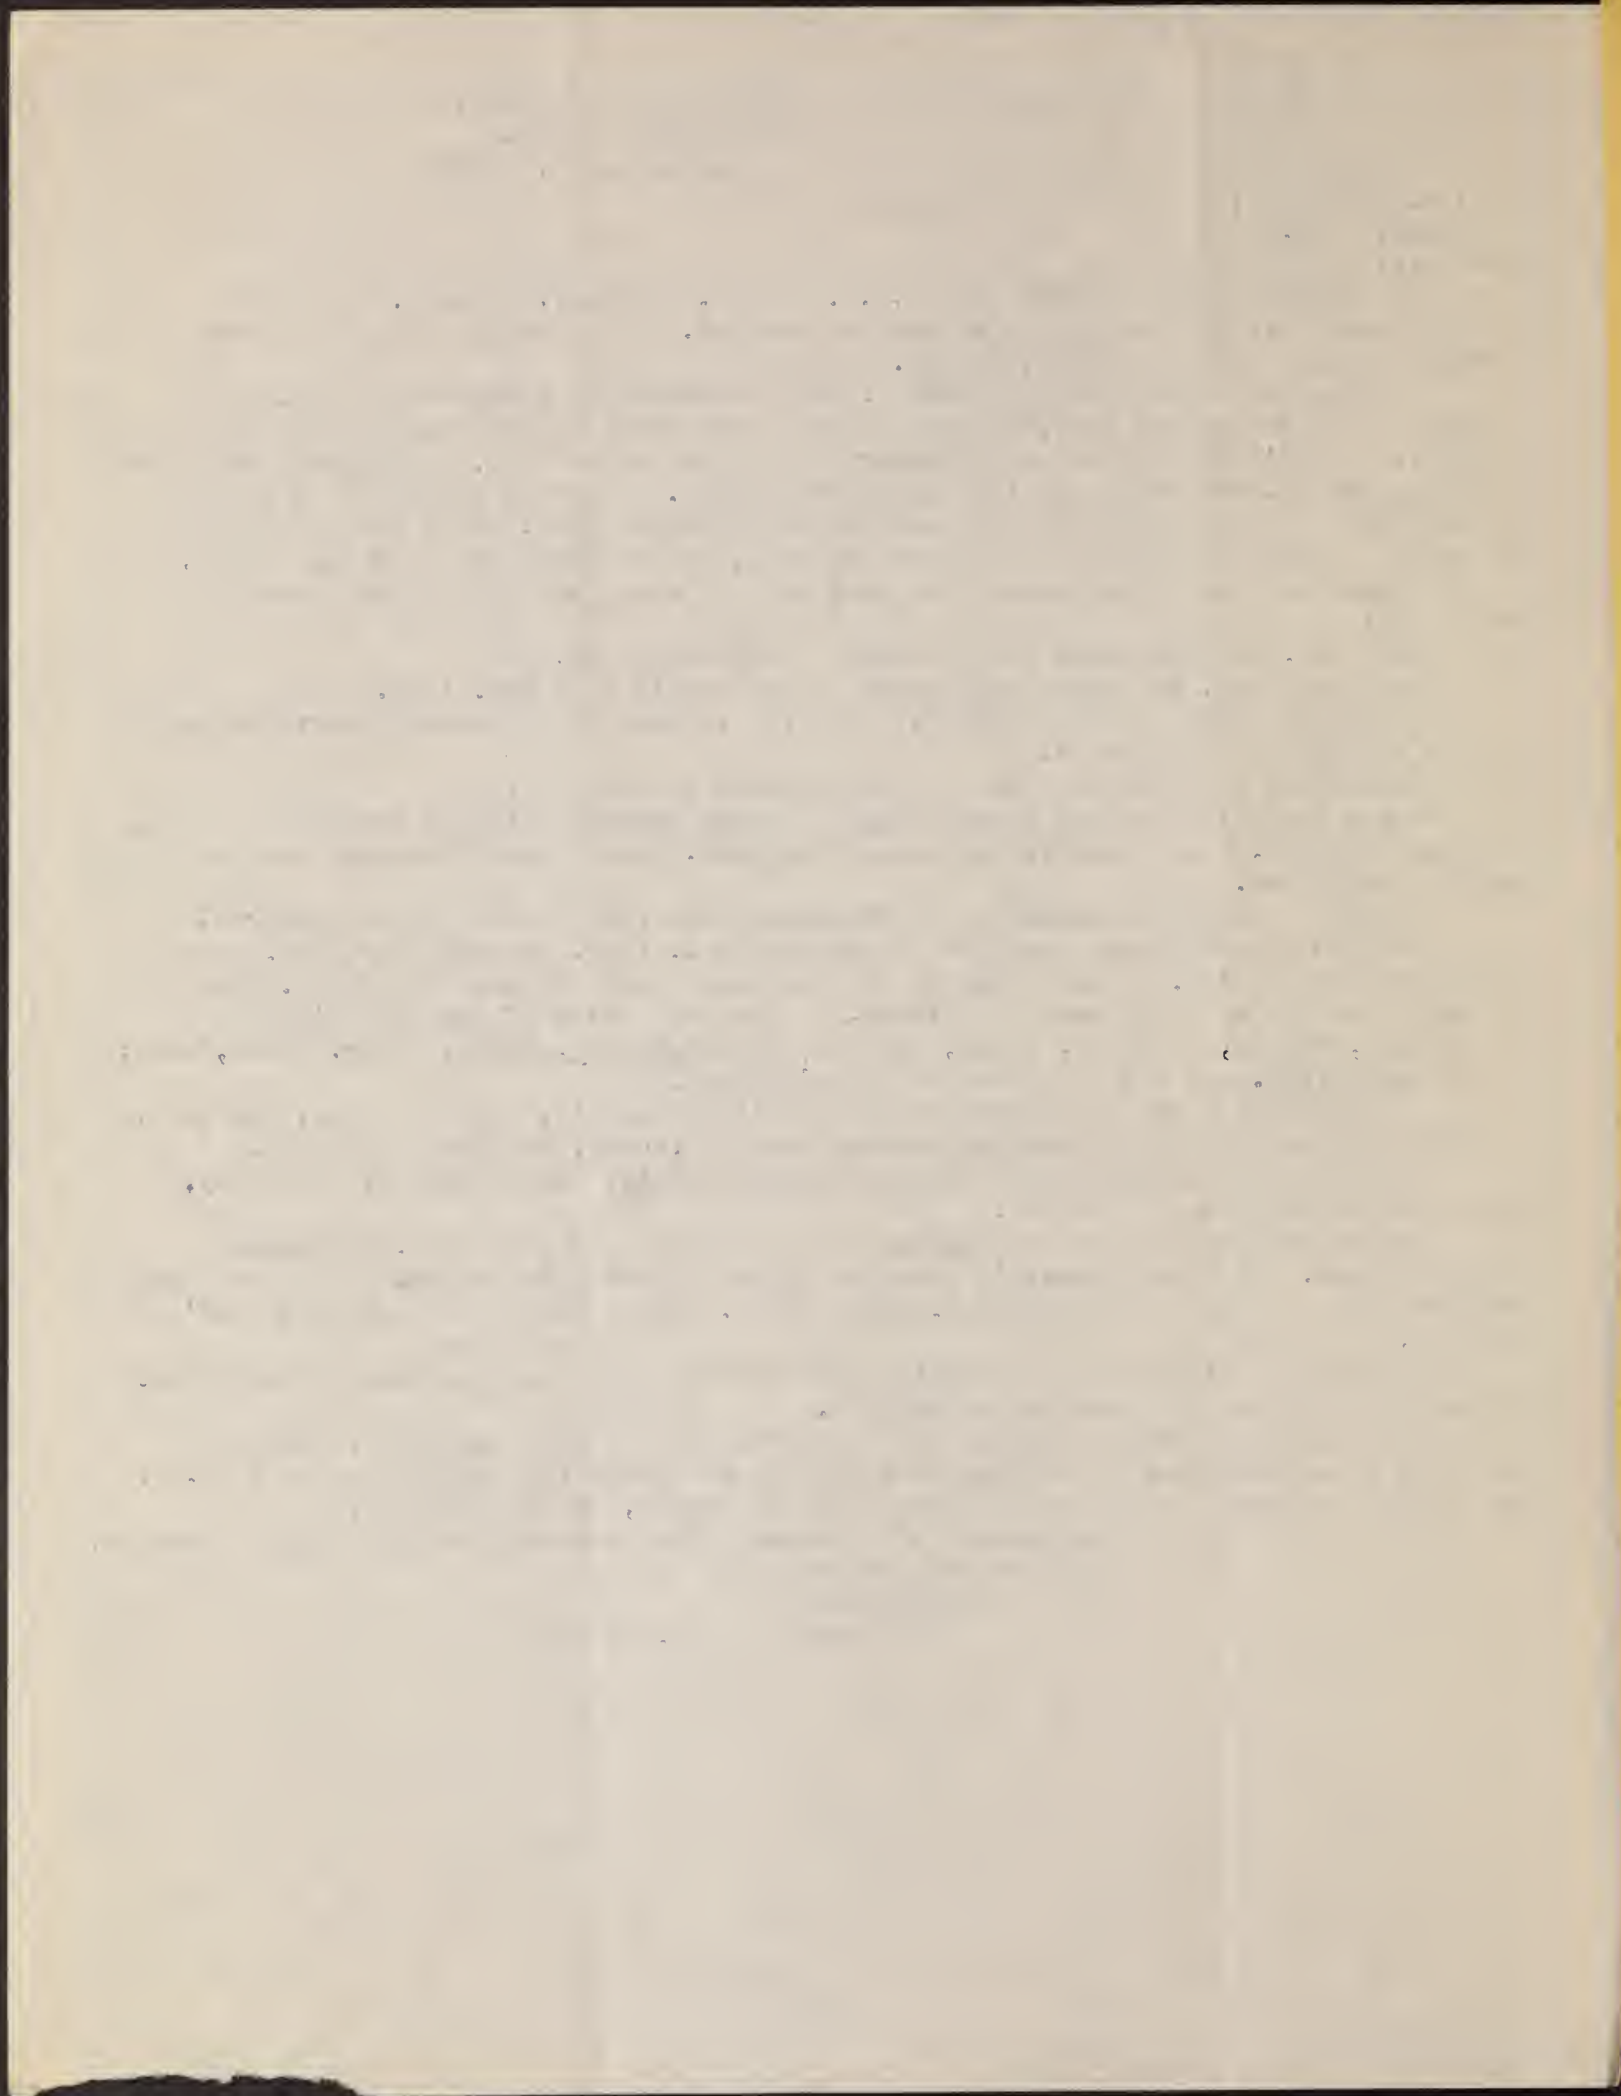

This is rather complicated as first cousins married back and forth, but will show why I am interested in getting more information about the families of both Wm. E. and Thomas and about Hans Everhart and Magdalena Carver, if you have any.

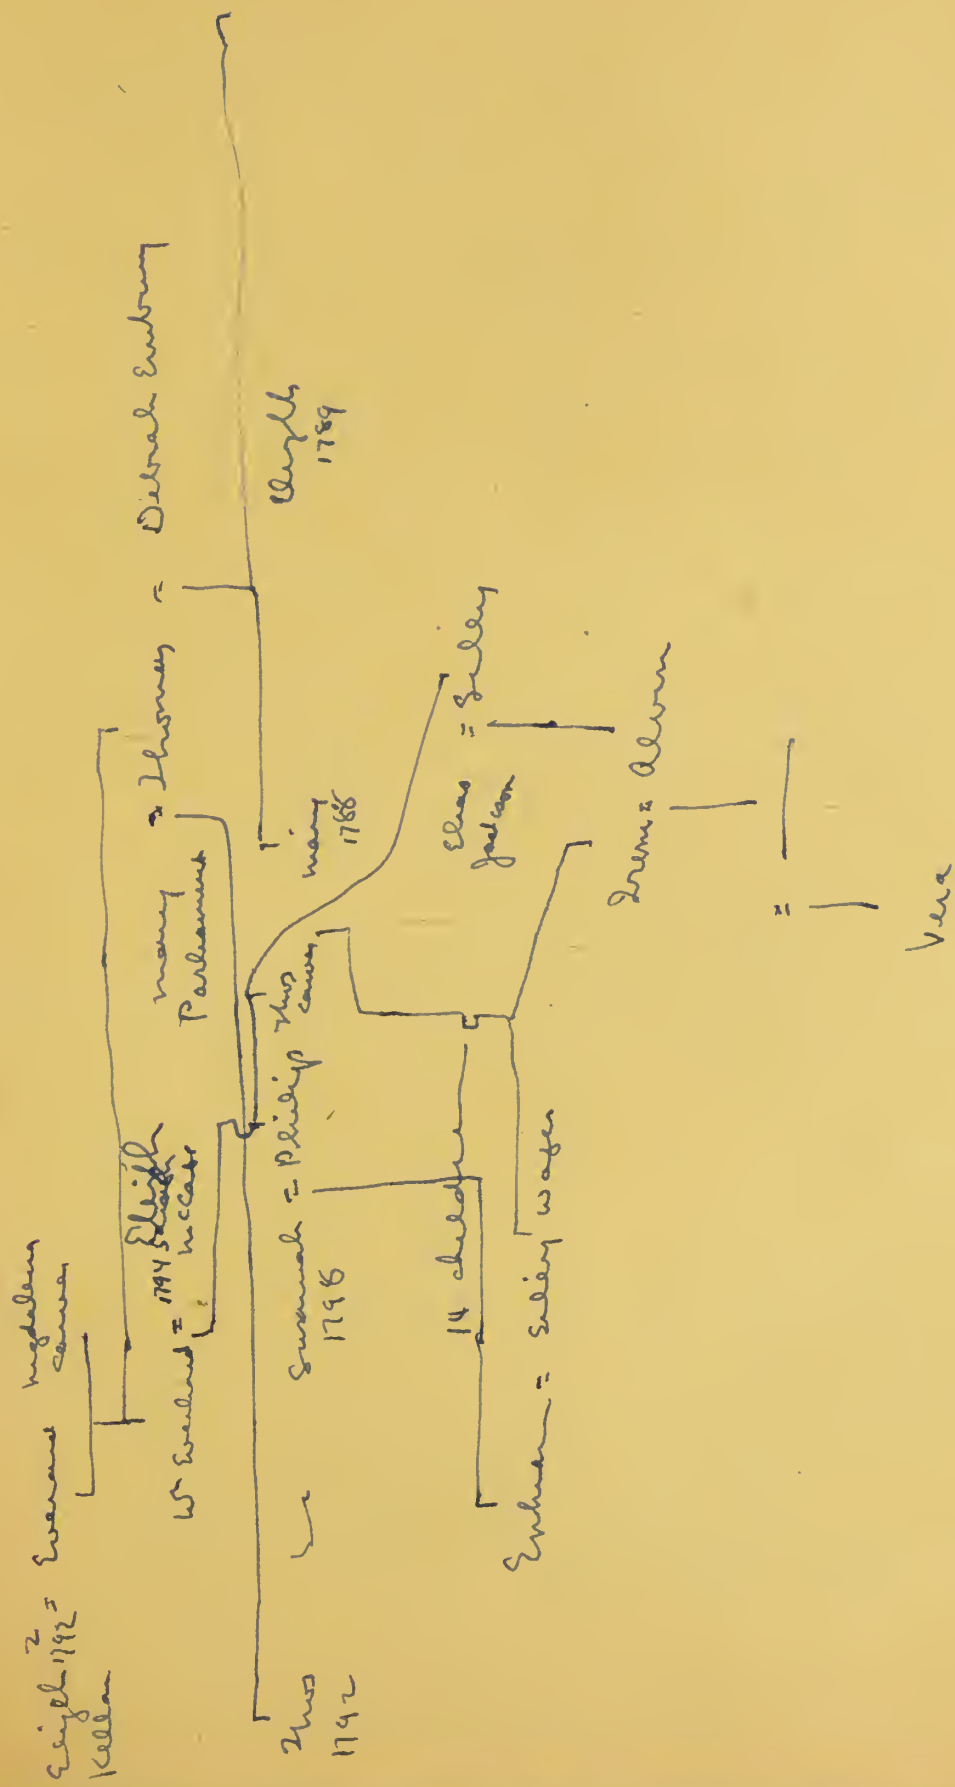

Also could you tell me where I might obtain other records, possibly church records.

Thanking you for your trouble

Yours truly

(Mrs) Vera M. Worsley

Obtained from her father Hiram Wager & his sister Mrs. Clark.

AN OLD DOCUMENT

Mrs. W. L. Clark and son Thomas have returned from a visit to her old home around Napanee. While there she had the honor of dining with Mrs. Peacord, at a party given at the Rectory on the Mohawk reserve on the Bay of Quinte. Mrs. Peacord is a first cousin of the late Dr. Orenhytekha. Rev. Mc Creegan of this parish married Longboat and his bride. Mrs. Clark brought back with her an old document of historical interest and a family treasure. It is her grandfather's honorable discharge from the British Army that fought in the American revolutionary war. As one of the U.E. loyalists his property was confiscated by the United States Government and he and his sons were each given a grant of land in Canada. The discharge read as follows: His Majesty's Provincial Regiment. 2nd Battallion King's Royal Regiment of New York. Johnson *Knight and Baronet, is Lieutenant Colonel Commandant. These are to certify that the Bearer hereof, Thomas Weegar, private soldier in Capt. William Redford Crawford's Company, of the aforesaid regiment, born in the Parish of Nine Partners in the County of Albany, aged 20 years, hath served honestly and faithfully in the said regiment for three years and in consequence of His Majesty's order for debanding the said regiment he is hereby discharged and is entitled by His Majesty's late order to the portion of land allowed to each Private soldier of His Provincial Corps who wishes to become a settler in this Province. He having first received all just demand of Pay, Cloathing, & from his entry into the said Regiment, to the Date of his Discharge, as appears by his receipt on the back hereof. Given under my hand at Catarogue this twenty-fourth day of June 1784. JOHN KEYES
